

HISTORY

The Greenbrier has been welcoming guests from around the world for over 200 years. The natural mineral springs that drew our first guests continue to lure visitors to our 6,500-acre luxury retreat. With a guest list that includes 26 of our country's 44 Presidents, America's Resort has long been a favorite destination of royalty, business titans and celebrities. More than 50 unique activities are offered including four championship golf courses, one of the world's most celebrated spas, shopping, gaming, equestrian sports, fishing, off-road driving and more. The Greenbrier also features 100,000 square-feet of conference facilities to accommodate groups of up to 2,500 people.

THE GREENBRIER SPA

Named one of the top spas in North America by Condé Nast Traveler, our holistic treatments harness natural essences and minerals to offer a distinctive rejuvenating experience. With a focus on hydrotherapy and the use of mineral-based products indigenous to the area, The Greenbrier Spa provides various relaxing and therapeutic treatments. With today's finest products and equipment, meticulous attention to detail, lavish décor and the hospitality and service for which the resort has always been noted, the spa focuses on revitalization and relaxation.

GOLF AT THE GREENBRIER

Tom Watson, winner of 39 events on the PGA TOUR and current player on the Champions Tour, holds the title of Golf Professional Emeritus at The Greenbrier. Our four 18-hole championship courses, are more than enough reasons to lure golf aficionados to White Sulphur Springs. Each course begins and ends at the Golf Club, just a short walk from the main building, and offers unique challenges and breathtaking views of the surrounding Allegheny Mountains.

The inaugural Greenbrier Classic was the event of the century at America's Resort and next year promises to be even bigger. Badges are now on sale for the 2nd annual Greenbrier Classic and official PGA TOUR, FedExCup event taking place July 25 - 31, 2011.

For those seeking to improve their game, The Greenbrier Golf Academy provides the ultimate in golf instruction. Attendees will benefit from leading edge teaching and playing philosophies and techniques, all focused on achieving results, while ensuring a memorable experience.

The deluxe practice range offers premium Callaway® range balls and a variety of target greens as well as a large putting/chipping green. Additional putting greens are located alongside the Golf Academy.

For more information regarding group tee times, fees or clinics visit greenbrier.com.
